

Who are we?

The UHK Information, Counselling and Career Centre is a worksite providing support, counselling and information to UHK students, trying thus to support their professional and personal development, ensure good conditions for study, successful completion of their study programmes, and professional integration.

The centre provides all services free of charge.

The Centre is divided in five divisions:

- Contact Site and Information Service
- Augustin – support of students with specific needs
- Social Counselling
- Psychological and Therapeutic Support
- Career Centre.

To get the consultation, you should always make an appointment in advance.

Contact Site

The Contact Site is a place where you can get comprehensive information about the Centre services and contact details of the counsellors. The staff can help you arrange consultations with other specialists.
