

Programme of Support for Cooperation with International Strategic Partners of the University of Hradec Králové (International Strategic Partnerships)

I. Objectives of the programme

The aim of this university-wide programme is to support intensive international cooperation of the University of Hradec Králové (hereinafter referred to as the “UHK”) with selected international partner institutions. The support and development of cooperation concerns educational, creative and research activities, activities within the third role of the university, creation of joint teams, jointly solved topics, sharing good practice, or gaining experience.

II. International strategic partners of the UHK

Within the framework of this programme, the international strategic partners of the UHK mean exclusively those universities with which the university or the faculties made strategic partnership agreements aimed at developing cooperation primarily in the areas of education, science, research and the third role of universities.

Information about the UHK's international strategic partners is available here:

uhk.cz/en/university-of-hradec-kralove/about/cooperations-partnership/international-strategic-partners

III. Challenges of the programme

The support focuses mainly on:

- Cooperation in educational activities;
- Research cooperation, support for creative activities and development of professional capacities;
- Cooperation in the third role of universities;
- Sharing good practice and professional development of staff.

The UHK or its units announce sub-calls that set out specific conditions and support options for applicants. Each sub-call must contribute to the development of cooperation with partners in one of the above-mentioned areas.

The specific focus, areas of support, conditions of cooperation, application and implementation procedures will be specified in the individual calls.

IV. Programme funding

This programme and its individual calls will be funded mainly from the resources of the Programme to Support Strategic Management of Higher Education Institutions (PSSM), project resources (e.g., ESF projects, OP JAK), institutional resources, etc. according to the decision of the management of the UHK or individual faculties.

V. Other provisions

As part of the implementation of the Strategic Plan of the UHK, the faculties shall regularly report to the university's International Office on activities and calls announced within this programme and on their implementation.

VI. Final Provisions

This Decree shall enter into force and effect on the date of signature.
