prof. Ing. Kamil Kuča, Ph.D.

Rector

Call for Competition to Fill Posts within International Mobilities at the University of Hradec Králové

Positions within international mobilities are offered to enhance international cooperation, develop human resources in research, and support professional growth of the University of Hradec Králové (hereinafter referred to as “UHK”) researchers.

General conditions for mobility acceptability

The applicant must justify the necessity of the mobility and the relevance to the specific UHK workplace (departments, laboratories, etc.) where the mobility will be implemented. He/she must, among other things, describe the planned research activities during the mobility and the relation to the research performed by the researcher before the mobility.

The applicant must define specific and clear mobility aims and benefits, e.g. establishment of new or expansion of the existing cooperation, development of networking, transfer of knowledge, or transfer of research methods. The mobility benefit for the research organization (recipient of funding) will always be assessed.

The researcher's involvement in the research activities in the organization must be adequate with regard to the researcher's contribution to research performed in the institution (the researcher's role, rate of involvement, knowledge and experience in the given research field).

The researcher is obliged to actively¹ participate in a one conference/seminar/workshop organized by the UHK, every 6 months of the mobility. If the mobility lasts 3-6 months, he/she must participate in at least one such event. If the mobility lasts for more than 6 months and a maximum of 12 months, he/she must participate in at least two such events. If the mobility lasts for more than 12 months and a maximum of 18 months, he/she must participate in at least three such events. If the mobility lasts for more than 18 months and a maximum of 24 months, he/she must participate in at least four such events.

All research outputs created during the mobility must be published in the form of the Open Access².

Mobility 1 – Incoming: Working visits of Foreign Postdoctoral in the Czech Republic

The post-dock will bring foreign experience and skills related to his/her previous experience abroad to the UHK. The aim is to benefit from the potential of foreign researchers in the Czech Republic and to internationalize research.

The applicant must meet all the following criteria:

- 1) The applicant must be a postdoctoral researcher according to the following definition: “A postdoctoral researcher is a researcher within 7 years after obtaining the Ph.D. degree title or its foreign equivalent”³. If the given person does not have the Ph.D. degree title, his/her title must correspond to ISCED Level 8 (International Standard Classification of Education). If the academic degree cannot be identified clearly as ISCED Level 8, the receiving institution must prove recognition of the researcher's education during the mobility (by its termination).

² In the event that some research data cannot be published in the form of the Open Access (according to the General Annex L of the 2017 Work Program of 25. July 2016), it must be substantiated by a proper justification why they do not meet the condition given by the call.

- 2) The applicant must be a researcher from abroad who, during the last 3 years (as to the date of the start of the mobility), worked for at least 2 years in research institution(s) out of the Czech territory with at least half-time employment at all times, or was a Ph.D. (or similar) student abroad. Czech citizens are not excluded.
- 3) H-index – minimum 4, calculated according to the normalization table shown in Annex 3 How to Calculate the Normalized H-Index. Web of Science or Scopus are used as sources for H-index calculation. The calculation of the normalized H-index will be submitted to each mobility together with other documents proving the applicant selection in accordance with the call conditions. A researcher in social sciences and humanities does not present his/her H-index.
- 4) The applicant must prove publications – at least 2 publications within the last 3 years⁴. Relevant publications are publications registered in the Thomson Reuters Web of Science database of the JCR index (type "article", "letter" and "review") or in the fields of the SHV in the SJR SCOPUS index (type "article", "book", "book chapter", "letter" and "review").
- 5) The postdoctoral researcher must have a mentor from the UHK at disposal for consultations for the whole mobility duration.
- 6) The mobility must last between 6 and 24 months. The mobility must end no later than 30 April 2023. UHK prefers 6 months mobility. If you require a different length of mobility, please justify this in the Mobility Schedule.
- 7) During the mobility, the researcher must be a full-time employee of the UHK and his/her place of employment must be in the Czech Republic.

⁴ The given period of time may be extended for the period of maternal and parental leave, long-term disease (lasting for more than 90 days), care for an ill family member (for more than 90 days), preparation for a specialist postgraduate examination, and military service.
